

Foundations of Adventure Safety

May 1-2, 2026

ABOUT THE COURSE

The course content includes good safety practices, standards and theories to help programs achieve excellence in risk management.

Participants develop skills and knowledge essential to building and maintaining an effective safety management system for their outdoor, adventure, experiential or travel program.

This 16-hour training is held over two days. The class features case studies, role-playing scenarios and seminar-style discussions.

Graduates receive a course certificate from Viristar valid for three years.

TOPICS

■ Risk assessments	■ Equipment management
■ Experiential safety standards	■ Incident reporting
■ Legal concepts	■ Emergency response planning
■ Safety culture	■ Media relations
■ Human factors	■ Systems thinking
■ Schools & providers	■ And more

SCHEDULE

May 1-2, 2026
8:30 am - 5:30 pm each day

LOCATION

Utahloy International School
Guangzhou
800, Sha Tai Bei Road, Bai Yun
District, 510515 Guangzhou, China

REGISTER

OUTCOMES

- ✓ LEARN skills for preventing and mitigating incidents
- ✓ GAIN practical tools for improving safety outcomes
- ✓ UNDERSTAND how to apply safety standards

COST

415 USD / 2900 RMB
Includes instruction, materials, copy of the textbook, and lunch and afternoon snacks each day

TRAINER

Jeff Baierlein
*Director of Viristar
Past Executive Director at Outward Bound USA*